

Article II

Collection and Disposal

[Adopted 9-17-1991 by L.L. No. 7-1991]

§ 192-3

Title.

This article shall be known as the "Solid Waste Management Law of the Town of Irondequoit."

§ 192-6

License required; application; fee.

A.

For business for collecting. No person shall engage in the business of receiving, collecting or transporting residential and/or commercial refuse or recyclable materials in the town without first obtaining a license to carry on such business from the town and paying the fee for such license as herein provided. Nothing herein contained, however, shall be construed to prevent any person from transporting for the purpose of disposal such refuse, bulky refuse, yard waste or recyclables as is normally generated by such person on his or her own premises or in his or her own business. Licenses issued pursuant to this article shall be for a period of one year, renewable each calendar year, to ascertain that all conditions of this article are being complied with, and subject however to the revocation thereof as provided herein. An annual fee shall be charged for licenses issued pursuant to this section. Such fee shall be determined by the Town Board, by resolution, and may be adjusted on an annual basis. All licenses will be effective from January 1 to December 31 for the year in which the annual fee was paid for.

§ 192-17

Service refusal prohibited.

No refuse collector shall refuse to render service when asked by any person located within the refuse collector's primary service area. Terms and conditions of providing collection service shall be agreed upon between the individual and the refuse collector, but shall be uniform for all customers and shall not discriminate for other than valid business reasons. The refuse collector shall continue to provide service during any dispute with any person, but shall have the right to appeal to the Commissioner of Public Works/Superintendent of Highways relative to continuing the service to any person. The Commissioner of Public Works/Superintendent of Highways shall render a decision within 30 days of the written presentation of the appeal to him or her.
